Description

This is a beautiful antique French ormolu mounted king wood tilt top occasional table, circa 1860 in date. The table has been masterfully crafted from kingwood with fabulous gilded ormolu mounts, the shaped top inset with beautiful floral marquetry on an ebonised ground above scrolling supports and raised on an octagonal urn shaped column with quadripartite scrolled supports. The underside features a Dresden label. It is a very decorative piece which will brighten up any interior. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned and polished in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
