Call Andrew 07771676321 We used to purchase bookcases like this between £20,000-£30,000 not so many years ago. Sadly I am now too old to see these times return I fear, but return they will, fine furniture has a proven past, fashion means change, change means we will see its true value again. Nevermind its "Green credentials that seem to have been ignored ! Anything that we still use and enjoy 200+ years after it's making, yet still in its youth of functionality and beauty, should logically trump anything made "imported" today of little to no character to be discarded tomorrow as waste. At these lowest in 50 years present prices these are as real an investment as anything that also gives you function and pleasure to own. Size; 120inches x 95inches x 21inches Free shipping Mainland UK.
