Description

A Victorian period, Chippendale style, wind-out extending dining table, Circa 1870. This high quality, attractive solid mahogany dining table, features a beautifully figured top, with moulded lipped edge and rounded corners. Each leaf and end constructed from single piece of solid mahogany. It extends by way of telescopic bearer stretchers, "Joseph Fitter, Patent" screw-winding mechanism, complete with original winding handle, and two leaves. There is a plain frieze with lower lipped edge. All raised on well proportioned cabriole legs on claw and ball feet, with hidden brass castors. A very good table, in good condition and well presented. Restored, repolished, serviced, cleaned and waxed, ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 74.5 cm (29.5") tall, 240 cm (94.5") long extended, 145 cm (57") long unextended, and 121 cm (47.5") wide. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally very sound and sturdy. There are minor some marks and blemishes. The table has been restored, repolished, and fully serviced. No loose joints. One quality repair to...
