Description

A vibrant mid-Victorian footstool of long form, crafted in richly figured walnut and topped with a hand-worked needlepoint floral panel in vivid tones. Raised on shaped bracket feet, this is a decorative piece that would effortlessly add character to a living room — or perfect for adding a splash of colour at the end of a bed, beneath a window, or along a hallway wall. Presented in very good antique condition with beautifully aged patina to the wood. Structurally sound, lovely and clean, and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1870. H: 14 W: 110 D: 30 cm

Internal Ref: 3081
