Description

This lovely early Georgian dressing mirror is in Cuban mahogany with ebonised scroll feet. It has two opening drawers and an adjustable tilting mirror frame. It is beautifully polished and retains its original deep lustrous and patina. As a true mark of its age, there is some deterioration to the mirror glass which adds to its character and provenance. However, if the buyer prefers this to be replaced with a new glass, this will be done on request at no charge to the buyer. The markings are not excessive and do not impair the use of the mirror in its present form.

Dimensions(max): 19" wide x 10.5" deep x 25" tall
