Description

Impressive oak pedestal sideboard from the fantastic Victorian era. The sideboard comes in five sections for easy transportation to and around the home. The arched shaped back with beautifully carved leaves and vines, sits on a breakfront top. The two cupboards have paneled doors covered with pollard oak veneers, chamfered edges and carved decoration top and bottom. One cupboard houses 2 slim slid trays and the other has 3 one of which has special built in compartments for holding bottles etc. Like all antiques there are some imperfections however nothing that will detract from this truly breath taken piece of antique furniture.
