Description

A very nice 18th Century George II Walnut Lowboy of superb golden colour, in lovely original condition retaining the original pierced brass handles. A well drawn piece with nicely shaped frieze, the classic three drawer formation standing on cabriole legs. Veneered in matched Walnut throughout with fine box wood stringing and cross grain banding. The original drawer linings are in good clean condition and made in pine. The piece tips up wonderfully to reveal a golden untouched surface underneath, just as we like to see. Circa 1730
