Description

A Scottish antique George IV sterling silver brandy pan which is round in shape with a plain body, a good pouring spout, a pull off lid and resting on a flat base. The side handle is particularly interesting, as it can also be removed, and it slots comfortably back in position to remain tight and secure. This silver brandy pan would make a useful addition to a Scottish silver collection and it remains in excellent condition. There is a crest on one side of the body. Height to top of handle: 13 cms (5.1") Height to top of lid: 11.5 cms (4.5") Diameter of body: 10 cms (3.9") Weight: 10.4 troy ounces (323 grams) Hallmarked in Edinburgh for 1824 by Morton. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this silver brandy pan. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact us.
