Description

A lovely stripped pine floor standing corner cupboard dating from the late 19th century. It has a single panelled door which opens to a shelved interior. It is a good quality piece with a shaped plinth along the top edge and a small turned knob on the door. It is in good condition with a nice mellow patina. There are signs of age and use, some small knocks and minor marks but nothing detrimental. The interior is generally clean and tidy with a few minor old marks. It has been cleaned and lightly waxed and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
