Description

A good quality Victorian mahogany side table dating from the mid to late 19th century. It stands on beautifully turned tapering legs and has two drawers, each with a turned knob. It has a raised shaped gallery along the back edge. It is in good condition with a lovely rich patina. There are signs of age and use, some small marks and minor knocks but no major damages and it displays well. The drawers open well and have their original blue penny paper linings. There are some old stains and marks on the linings but overall they are clean and tidy. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
