Description

Early Victorian Writing Table with Twin Pedestals * English Early Victorian circa 1840 * Mahogany * Knee-hole Desk * Twin pedestals each with 4 drawers * Plain polished top * In good condition commensurate with age and wear * Petite and functional * Versatile enough to use within any room setting * With freestanding mirror could be suitable as dressing table * H: 73cm (28.7") W: 97cm (38.2") D: 51cm (20.1") This elegant English early Victorian Writing Table with Twin Pedestals dating back to circa 1840 is petite enough to fit in to any room setting and yet it is so functional. Each pedestal has four drawers leaving a small knee-hole in between. It is in good condition and has a plain polished top allowing for the display of items or for the function of its original purpose. This is a sweet little desk and is versatile enough to be used in any room - with the addition of a free standing mirror it could be used within a bedroom setting to function as a desk and dressing table.
