Description

This is a set of 5 antique dining chairs. A Scottish, rosewood buckle back seat, dating to the William IV period, circa 1835. Pleasingly decorative suite of dining chairs of fine quality and craftsmanship. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout. Quality stocks present fine grain interest and rich caramel hues. Finished with maker's marks in duplicate to the frame for a J. Sinclair. Striking buckle backs, the crest rail adorned with a carved double scroll relief. Carved acanthus bar splats unite the mid point of the distinctive back rest. Each cushion dressed in a tasteful champagne gold upholstery. Cushions finished with a tasteful brocade trim in light gold. Traditionally stuffed cushions set at a comfortable height of 46cm (18"). Superb tulip bulb carvings adorn the knees, tapering below to the circular foot. Splayed rear legs of square section form cascade from the back rest. This is an attractive set of 5 antique dining chairs, with an appealing upholstery which is ready to enjoy as is. Striking frames with delightful carved finishes highlight the fine craftsmanship. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home. Dimensions: Max Width...
