Description

Here is an extremely elegant watercolour portrait of a young woman, signed and painted in 1928 by Joan Russell. Beautifully executed by a delicate hand, the woman dressed in a fashionable robe, gazes out wistfully with her piercing blue-grey eyes and is a superb example of a refined and graceful portrait of the period. The painting is mounted under gold card and is in a glazed gilt frame with beautiful corner details, and would make a wonderful addition to any home. The painting measures 55cm by 46cm framed, and the actual painting measures 29cm by 22cm. Please do not hesitate if I can provide any further information or photographs. I offer free delivery throughout mainland UK, and am very happy to help with quotes for postage abroad.
