

SA1051465

Georgian Prism Cut Glass Water Jug c1820

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1051465*Date of manufacture: 1800

Dimensions

Height = 17.5 cm (6.9")

Width = 18.5 cm (7.3")

Description

Technical Description An exceptional 19th century cut glass water jug. A pulled pouring lip featuring a notch cut rim. Full prism cut neck and body. Applied strap handle. Polished pontil. Date & Origin England, c1820. Period of George IV. Condition Minor grazes to some of the cuts as shown, clear and clear. Dimensions Height: 17.5cm Diameter: 18.5cm including the handle. Historical Relevance Hand-blown around the time the Irish Royal Navy captain, Edward Bransfield landed on the mainland of Antarctica.

Internal Ref: 2024013001

Seller Details

Exhibit Antiques

Glasgow Scotland United Kingdom

Tel: 01501 228 282

International Tel: +44 1501 228 282

