

SA1051481

19th Century Engraved 'Last Drop' Whisky Tumbler c1870

Price

Sold*Item Reference: SA1051481*Date of manufacture: 1870

Dimensions

Height = 10 cm (3.9")

Description

Technical Description A 19th century 'Last Drop' Whisky tumbler dating to c1870. Beautifully engraved with hops and barley around the rim with deep slice cuts to the lower half. A notch cut foot with a large polished pontil, the pontil engraved with a hanged man...which you only see from above if you drink the last drop. Date & Origin England, c1870, Queen Victoria Condition Excellent, age-related wear as shown. Dimensions Height: 10cm Rim diameter: 8.8cm Foot diameter: 7.6cm. Historical Context On July 15th, 1870, the novelist Charles Dickens, died. Also, Georgia became the last of the Confederate states to return to the Union and the Franco-Prussian War began.

Internal Ref: 2024021603

Seller Details

Exhibit Antiques

Glasgow Scotland United Kingdom

Tel: 01501 228 282

International Tel: +44 1501 228 282

