Description

Technical Description One of the very best condiments set we have had, a superb 19th century six bottle set in a silver-plated stand. Unknown maker, but probably Sheffield, the silver plate is in excellent condition as shown with a central handle. The six bottles have been beautifully cut with slice cut necks and diamonds above and below polished pillars with notch cuts. Polished feet. Salt and pepper have silver plated caps as does the mustard which also has its original spoon with the same makers mark as the frame which is SM & W EP. The other bottles all have their original cut lapidary stoppers. Date & Origin Sheffield, c1880-1900. Condition Plate is in excellent condition. One of the bottles has a small chip, all others are in excellent clean and clear condition. Dimensions Height: 22cm Width : 17.5cm Length : 23.5cm
