Description

A good example of a country oak Cricket Table dating from the late 18th / early 19th Century. It has a circular planked top set on turned tapering legs with a square apron. It is in good original condition with a wonderful colour and patina. There are signs of age and use but it is a solid sturdy piece. The bottom of the feet have obviously worn over time and have been repaired at some point with new tips added but this hasn't affected the piece structurally or aesthetically. It has been lightly cleaned and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
