Description

A quality set of four late 19th century dining chairs with beautifully shaped and carved backs above the plush claret seats raised on carved cabriole front legs. All of the chairs are in very good condition and all are structurally solid with no movement. One chair has a different back section which has obviously been replaced at some point but it is in keeping with the aesthetic. One chair has some evidence of very old long gone woodworm to the rear of the front legs with one leg being particularly affected however this is from long ago and the chair has been in use for many decades since so is not structurally affected and adds a certain amount of charm and character. Price is for set of 4 chairs. English, late 19th century. H: 85 W: 47 D: 53 cm Seat height: 46 cm
