Description

C19th Victorian Cast Iron & Oak Garden Bench. A Victorian period, painted cast iron and weathered oak garden bench, dating from the late C19th. Featuring tree branch form iron supports, with weathered oak seat and back slat. A handsome bench, in attractive weathered condition, structurally sound and ready for use. Dimensions: This bench measures approximately 85 cm (33.5") tall, 213 cm (84") wide, and 79 cm (31") deep. The seat height is approximately 42.25 cm (16.5"). Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This bench is in a reasonable and weathered condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound and sturdy. The cast iron has been overpainted, but very much in keeping with its appearance. The oak is well weathered, but still overall sound. Overall this presents very well if you are looking for a weathered in piece. Very serviceable and ready to use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
