Description

Antique Victorian Grand Flame Mahogany Sideboard An outstanding condition original period sideboard. We are delighted to bring to you the finest example of a rare early Victorian period (circa 1850) breakfront sideboard made from the finest quality Mahogany. The sideboard features its stunning ornately carved plate back (removable via screws) above its beautifully polished 1 piece (veneer) Mahogany top with cross-band edged all around. The top partition features 3 frieze drawers which are smoothly operating, dovetail constructed, red baize lined and complete with book-matched flame Mahogany veneer above their moulded edges. This sideboard base features a breakfront which is flanked either side by 2 bulbous carved and curved flame Mahogany doors locked either side via its original lock and key. The centre doors feature a rounded moulding with beautiful floral carvings to the tops which frames the fine book-matched flame Mahogany centres. The centre doors have a lovely original brass slam strip in the centre with a matching brass keyhole escutcheon in-front of its original working lock complete with key. Unlocking and opening the doors reveals a tray fitted interior, al...
