Description

A magnificent antique riviere necklace decorated with fabulous, old cut paste stones that sparkle as bright as diamonds. The piece is all silver and made up of pretty, open-work links that lead to a beautiful dropper pendant surrounded by a rose gold frame in the centre. This is a quality example of a paste necklace with beautifully cut Paste stones set in closed-back settings. The necklace secures to the reverse with a silver spring ring fastener. Paste is a special type of hand-cut glass used since the 18th century to replicate Gemstones. This piece would be an heirloom to treasure. STONES Paste METAL Silver MEASUREMENTS The necklace length measures 15" inches. Pendant measures 4.5cm x 3cm WEIGHT 37 grams CONDITION This memorising antique paste silver necklace remains in very good condition for its age. All stones are secure within their milgrain closed-back settings and all remain present with just some light wear around the edges of some settings. The spring fastener has been added later, making the necklace easy to put on and take off. A true antique treasure that shines beautifully whilst worn, it is a wonderful addition to your antique jewellery collection....
