Description

Pair of Large 19th Century Antique Lake District Marble Plinths A wonderful pair of very heavy English 19th century shaped marble plinths with collar tops. Originally supports for a Lake District hotel portico frontage, see image. They are both a lovely colour and are in great condition given their architectural past, just one has a very small area of damage at the base, doesn't affect the ways it stands. Would be ideal display plinths or unusual side tables. Dimensions Height: 71cm (28.17") Width: 38cm (15.08") Depth: 38cm (15.08")
