

SA1051725

---

19th Century Egyptian Revival Clock by Hamilton and Inches Circa 1860

Price

Sold*Item Reference: SA1051725*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

---

Description

An Egyptian Revival Black Marble Clock Circa 1860s made by the renowned clock and jewellery makers Hamilton and Inches of Edinburgh with Royal warrant granted by Queen Victoria in 1893 . Featuring a stunning black marble case engraved with Egyptian hieroglyphics the clock is adorned with beautiful Egyptian bronze mounts and topped by a bronze statue of Lamassu , creating a truly clock . This clock, made in the 1860s, would have been among the earliest items sold by Hamilton and Inches, thereby enhancing its historical significance. Hamilton and Inches of Edinburgh still exist today and has been serving customers for over 150 years. Established in 1866, this esteemed establishment is known for its exceptional craftsmanship, elegant designs . Located in Edinburgh, Scotland, Hamilton and Inches has become synonymous with sophistication and quality . Hamilton and Inches has a rich heritage and association with the British Royal Family. With a royal warrant granted by Queen Victoria in 1893, the retailer has been entrusted with supplying the royal household ever since . This prestigious honour reflects their continued commitment to excellence and their status as a provid...

---

Seller Details

School House Antiques

Hertfordshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07498 776 944

International Tel: +44 7498 776 944