Description

Edwardian Birdseye Maple & Walnut Table. We bring to you this pretty Edwardian side table believed to be made around C1910. The table features its beautiful quarter cut Book-matched Birdseye Maple top in a serpentine shape complete with a moulded edge. The table stands on its fluted double pillar base going to shaped supports with a stretcher between, which unusually has Birdseye maple veneer to the top face of the rail. The table is raised on lovely short turned legs. This table is in fantastic condition featuring its beautifully French polished finish with a warm colour and patina throughout. This very rare table is in a superb condition for its age, the joints are all as tight as they should be with no wobbles. Please note this item is in beautiful condition for its age as shown in the photographs below however being an antique item it does have the odd bump here and there. However, we feel that these points are which adds charm and character to a piece. Dimensions Height: 615mm Width : 775mm Depth: 450mm Delivery Private insured courier normally £60 for this item, enquire for accurate quote
