SoldItem Reference: SA1051941*Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

A breathtaking Art Deco sculpture capturing the movement and dynamics of a galloping horse, cast in cold painted spelter and gracefully mounted upon a sleek marble and onyx base. Created by an enigmatic artist of the Art Deco period, signed "Gonez," this piece is a true rarity, that evokes the timeless allure of the era. Despite its age, this sculpture remains in good antique condition with some signs of use, including chips and an old repair to the marble base. Dimensions: Length: 66 cm High: 32 cm Depth: 10 cm
