Description

This is a fabulous totally original oak bakers table from c.1900. The quality is very high with wonderful shaped legs complete with four drawers one faux but we can turn this into a functioning drawer for a slight additional charge if you prefer. The piece is made from American oak with great colour to the timber and patina gained from years of use. A very practical size for both dining as well as a kitchen island. Minor age related repairs but nothing to take away from the piece. Height 76cm Length 244cm Depth 90cm Height to underside 59cm Price includes UK mainland delivery
