Description

A well proportioned antique early 20th Century oak pedestal desk. The antique kneehole desk has a rectangular top with a green leather inset writing surface. The oak kneehole desk has a central drawer with twin pedestals either side, forming an arrangement of seven graduating drawers, one being a double drawer, each with wooden handles. The antique oak desk is raised on a plinth base. A particularly pleasing example, with a rich colour and grain throughout. Comes apart in four sections for ease of transportation and movement. Item Ref; M-5203 .
