Description

We are delighted to offer this exquisite antique Georgian ring made c.1800. This ring comes with its period fitted box (included in the listing) and is a wonderful example of fine Georgian jewellery. The ring features an unmissable and striking deep blue enamel on top, accentuated by a border of seed pearls - a fabulous and majestic design, ideal for lovers of regal and elegant Georgian style. The rectangular design with soft rounded corners truly makes an elegant and stylistic statement, bound to be a conversation starter and a wonderful way to express your passion for classical design and antiques. Each part of the ring has been carefully designed, decorated and crafted: the central pearl that contrasts the blue enamel draws your eyes towards the centre whilst the fine wirework ring/shank invites the onlooker to view the ring from many different angles. Overall, a wonderful statement piece with no area left unembellished nor bland - a fine addition to any collection of antique jewellery lovers, whether be it as a special gift or an indulgent treat for yourself. The ring is unmarked as is common with gold articles of the period and as such, we have full...
