Description

We are delighted to offer this exquisite art deco solid sterling silver cigarette case made in Birmingham 1936 with marks for Joseph Gloster Ltd. Practicality, elegance and distinguished style combined in one, this cigarette case is the perfect accoutrement to any tobacciana collection or collectors of enamelware. Particularly delightfully, the enamel remains in good condition on this piece despite its age and it has been kept in very good order. The exterior features a striking and unmistakable deco design with a light green sunburst guilloche design with white accents towards the edge. The interior is fully silver gilt which not only contrasts the silver colour but provides a layer of protection from the contents inside oxidising/tarnishing the silver. The push button clasp still functions very well with an audible 'snap' upon closure, keeping all contents held within safely. Whilst originally designed for holding cigarettes, this case could also be used for short-form cigars, holding matches or small items. A perfect gift or addition for the discerning individual and an equally delightful conversation starter. A set of English hallmarks are present o...
