Description

A George V era quality silver christening mug with clear hallmarks for London 1915 and makers mark for renowned silversmiths Wakeley & Wheeler. The mug holds very nearly a half pint of water, and could be described also as a half pint mug. It has a good gauge of silver. It stands on a rimmed foot with corresponding rim around the top. The handle is superb with a thumb plate and a fine curve to a snakehead tip.
