Description

A stylish and good quality pair of oak art deco cabinets dating from circa 1930. With stepped tops above a single long drawer over a cupboard with panelled doors and panelled sides. They have good quality brass handles and hinges and are in a light coloured oak. These cabinets would work well under a writing table, the long drawers and capacious cupboards offering lots of useful storage space. They could also be stacked on top of each other for use in a home office. They could even be used as long bedside cabinets. Construction/Wood: Oak / oak plywood Condition Report: Good condition. Solid and sturdy. Marks and wear commensurate with age.
