

SA1052760

Antique French 8-day carriage clock with striking gong

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1052760*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A late 19th century French 8-day gilt brass and gilt glass 5-pane gong striking carriage clock. Obie style case with turned knob and bevelled glass panels, white enamel dial with black Roman hours and black steel hands. Brass movement with two winding squares, time adjustment and original jewelled lever platform with slow/fast adjustment, accessed through the rear opening door. Height with handle raised - 18cm Height without handle raised - 13.5 cm. Width - 9.5 cm Depth - 8 cm Weight - 1761 grams Key included Excellent condition. The clock and gong are in working order. There is a small chip on the back glass in the upper left corner. Please look at all pictures carefully. Item will be dispatched with full tracking and insurance.

Seller Details

Gillers Antiques Ltd

Buckland House Buntingford Hertfordshire SG9 OPY United Kingdom

Tel: 07738 009924

International Tel: +44 7738 009924

