Description

An early 19th century Regency slipper chair raised on turned front legs with the original brass casters and thick splayed veneered legs to the rear (casters have been changed). Upholstered in a pale blue drayon velvet with contrasting piping. Structurally in good solid order and very much ready for use. Small loss to the veneer on the back leg as shown. As with all my upholstered seating I do offer upholstery should you wish. 46cm seat height
