Description

A Victorian carved oak Green man hall tree . very ornate and quality hand carved oak with a circular bevelled edge mirror . With six original iron hooks . Below the mirror there is a drawer to store gloves or keys . to each side there umbrella storage compartments complete with original drip trays to the base . The drawer front has a wonderful detailed carved green man motif ,that refers to a symbol of rebirth or the cycle of growth and also features leaves and foliage detail . The construction of solid English oak provides a sturdy and richly textured backdrop for the carving detail . A wonderful addition to any hall way and a great conversation piece .
