Description

A small Geo III elm gateleg table which with the leaves up seats four people comfortably. Great colour top above a finely turned underframe and short turned feet, there is a drawer on one end. Good condition throughout, there is a tip on one leaf which is a little darker than the rest, it is possibly replaced but contemporary with the rest and looks good underneath (see photos). English/Welsh Circa 1750. The table measures 117 x 97 cm extended. The chairs around it have been with it for the last 70 years and are available separately.
