Description

This is a very good Victorian brass hall light with beautiful stained glass panels all in perfect condition. The lantern is a patented design by and is stamped Defiance Beals Patent to the inside of one panel. The leaded and stained glass sections are in super condition and the brass has a nice rich polished finish overall. This is a great example from around 1870 in the aesthetic taste. It still has a good Bakelite light fitting, bulb holder on wire support that accepts a standard bayonet fitting bulb. The lantern measures 42 cms high and 20 cms square with the overall width being 36 including the scroll leaf detail. UK insured packing and delivery is £25
