Description

This is an exquisitely high-quality and rare antique pair of English Old Sheffield Plate, silver plated on copper, domed entree dishes, each with lid and stand, circa 1780 in date. These stunning shaped oblong entree dishes feature impressive chased loop handles with splendid floral and foliate decoration. They are engraved on each side with a coat-of-arms on one side and three falcons and the motto 'Strike' on the other. They are of the highest quality and are ready to grace your dining table. A truly exquisite pair that would make a fine addition to any antique collection. Condition: In excellent condition. As antique items, the pieces show signs of use commensurate with age, these minor condition issues are mentioned for accuracy and, as seen in the accompanying photographs, the dishes display beautifully. Dimensions in cm: Height 17 cm x Width 34 cm x Depth 26 cm. Dimensions in inches: Height 7 inches x Width 1 foot, 1 inch x Depth 10 inches. Old Sheffield Plate - or 'fused plate' as it is sometimes known, was the first commercially viable method of plating metal. The material was accidentally invented by Thomas Boulsover, of Sheffield's Cutlers Compan...
