Description

Grand William IV Rosewood Tilt top Dining Table. A fantastic restored Rosewood large tilt top table. We bring to you the most marvellous example of a restored Regency William IV period Tilt top round table of substantial size in Rosewood which was made around C1830. This table has been fully restored so is in stunning condition with a gleaming French polished finish which shows off the tables beautiful wild Rosewood fiddle-back grain. This very rare table features its stunning Rosewood top above its striking descending barrel turned pillar going to its substantial and beautifully crafted triform base which stands on turned bun feet of which conceal its original brass castors. Unusually and as a sign of quality this tilt top table has no movement or play in the mechanism as the table is being normally used, the top is flat and its high quality brass snap latch operates with little effort and a satisfying click. The table is also complete with its original brass table screws to remove the top. The table has its original polish which we have revived and brought back to glorious condition via the skilfull technique of amalgamation with Shellac French polish by our in house...
