Description

A truly exceptional find, a French bronze cabinet dating back to the 1910s, boasting a rich patina that speaks of decades of careful polishing. Elevated on intricately carved legs, this piece exudes elegance and sophistication. Complete with a lock and key for added security, it features four glass shelves supported by original adjustable brackets. With a mirrored back and base, this cabinet adds a touch of opulence to any space, whether adorning the showroom of an upscale retailer or enhancing the ambiance of a special home.
