Description

These beautiful 19th century chandelier earrings are perfectly proportioned with garnet cabochons top and bottom and rosette clusters surrounding a third cabochon in the middle. The rose-cut gems are the most gorgeous deep blood red colour and glow like little pomegranate seeds in the light. The earrings are gold over silver with solid nine-carat gold wires. • Condition: Excellent antique condition. • Fixing: Integral nine-carat gold ear wires, supplied with tiny silicone "keepers" which can be fixed on the back for extra security. • Era: Victorian (1837-1901). • Size: 4.9cm drop from the top of the ear wire to the bottom of the drop. The top garnets are approximately 8mm diameter and the oval rosette section measures 2 x 1.8cm. • Weight: 8.6g.
