Description

Of exemplary quality, this beautiful figured and flamed mahogany chest of drawers is by the renowned 19th century cabinet maker Holland & Sons. . Each drawer stamped 'Holland & Sons' and with original brass locks and working key. . In very well cared for and original condition, the chest is made of the finest quality mahogany with a well chosen beautiful mirrored figuring to the drawer fronts. The cabinet work is superb. . With two frieze drawers over three long drawers all fitted with turned mahogany handles which appear to be original. The original drawer linings with finely cut dovetails – all very robust, usable and offering a large amount of storage space. The drawers open and close smoothly. . Founded in 1803 by William Holland, the company started life as cabinet makers and upholsterers called 'Taprell, Holland & Son'. In 1843 Taprell retired and the company became 'Holland & Sons' under the sole directorship of William Holland. . By 1851, the company employed around 350 cabinet makers. The following year William Holland acquired the prestigious Lancaster and London based firm of Thomas Dowbiggin - makers of the coronation throne for Queen Victoria. Alongside G...
