Description

Antique silver Rotherhams pocket watch and chain. The watch has a stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed with the name of the original retailer, F E Bowden & Sons Plymouth. Frederick Edmund Bowden ran the business after his father bought it for him from a Mr Jabez Shephard in 1869. In 1901 two of his sons, Arthur and Sydney, joined the firm. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover which has general light marking. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside the Birmingham 1907 with a maker's mark for the Coventry watch maker John Rotherham of Rotherham & Sons. The case is in lovely condition, as is the later acrylic lens. The dial is signed with the Bowden name. It is in very nice condition with original blued steel pin set hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and outer minute markers. The watch comes with a silver double albert and fob. The T-bar and one of the fobs is stamped SS for sterling silver, with the other clasp having a date letter for 1892. Silver marks are visible on some of the links. There is also a silver fob, hallmarked for...
