Description

A fine Regency mahogany dropleaf side or work table, the rectangular top with rounded corners, boxwood and ebony stringing, rosewood crossbanding and tulipwood line inlay, and with a line of ebony to the edge, over two fitted drawers with gilt brass knobs and dummy drawer fronts verso, on slender tapering turned supports with reeded tops and boxwood stringing below, on ceramic castors. English circa 1820. Condition: Overall very good, the table is in excellent condition with no missing inlay nor undue wobbling, it stands well and the drawers run smoothly. The handles appear to be the originals, and overall the table has a smart appearance with a beautiful colour and patina.
