

SA1054254

Small 17th Century Oak Coaching Table with Provenance c. 1670

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1054254*Date of manufacture: Before 1700

Description

A very small and charming 17th century oak coaching table with a really excellent natural and deep patina and a great colour. Pretty and original and dating from c. 1670. . The top with a lovely raised carved border to the table bed and drop leaf. . With provenance, formerly in the renowned antique furniture collection of a high profile millionaire. . Good wine table height and pegged throughout, cast iron hinges. . Stands firm and solid and the leaf extends properly to give a flat surface. . No worm. Minor dings and marks and an old loss to the end of a tenon of one stretcher, not affecting structure and not requiring restoration. . A beautiful and rare survivor. . Small pieces of this quality can make a big impact in a room. Refined and subtle yet practical – guaranteed to delight. . . Dimensions are: . 19 inches deep, 15 inches wide with leaf extended (has only ever had a single leaf and single gateleg) 7 inches wide when leaf is dropped and height is 25.5 inches.

Seller Details

Webberley Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07765 233266

International Tel: +44 7765 233266