Description

This very rare early 19th Century Padouk Military two part chest of drawers , the chest comes in two sections which would have been made for a Military Officer for travelling . The size of the chest is very rare compared to others , the chest is a wonderful colour and of course has signs of usage which has occurred in the past 200 years. This chest has brass straps and corners with cast iron carrying handles to the sides, turned knob handles to the front , the chest stands on its original bracket feet . The chest is left un-restored to keep its character and history. Dimensions: Width 30" 76cm Height 34" 87cm Depth 16" 41cm Age 1820
