Description

This is a very unusual French wall clock dating to the late 1800's. It is extra large in size, with a 12 inch dial and measuring over 20.5 inches in diameter overall. Large Brass surround, uncleaned and original, almost like a giant ships clock in appearance. 8 day Countwheel movement of excellent quality, with a soft gong strike on the hour and half hour The dial has been replaced with a faithful replica, signed Farret, Rue Chapon 23, A Paris Fully serviced and working beautifully, I have never seen another clock like this one. A chance to buy a really unusual and visually appealing antique wall clock If you like unusual clocks that no one else has, this is for you!

Internal Ref: Farret clock
