Description

A gorgeous antique Victorian ring adorned with a trilogy of cherry-pink cushion cut rubies complemented by four twinkling old mine cut diamonds in between. The rubies have been tested as natural and are likely of Thailand or East African origin as detailed in the accompanying gem certification report. They weigh approx. 0.70ct and 0.80ct in the centre, with approx. 0.30ct of diamond. Ruby is the birthstone of July and has long been associated with the heart due to its fiery pink/ red colouring which is symbolic of passion. It's said to bring good fortune in love and provide long-lasting happiness and vitality to any relationship. The gallery is crafted in 18ct gold with ornate claw settings and scrolled shoulders. It's a stunning piece, all in excellent condition with a luxurious assembly of precious gems that spread over the finger. We recommend you insure for £4,900. We can provide a written Valuation on completion of the sale. WEIGHT: 4.32 grams SIZE: N (UK), 6 $\frac{3}{4}$ (US) – We offer free re-sizing, it takes approx. 1-2 weeks. Please request your size at checkout. MEASURES: Gallery Height 7mm x Width 18mm x Depth 4mm – Band Width 1.5mm METAL: 18ct Gold (Stamped)...
