Description

An attractive oak arts and crafts style chair dating from the early 20th century. It has curving arms and shaped back supports. The seat is made from plaited leather strips, with a studded border, which has developed a lovely patina. It is a small child's size chair which, although it has a large wide seat, wouldn't suit an adult. It is in good condition for its age. There are signs of age and use, some marks and knocks here and there but no major damages and it is strong and sturdy.
