Description

A lovely Victorian mahogany pot cupboard with an attractive white marble top. The cupboard has a single panelled door with carved decoration and a turned knob. The knob has an integrated catch to hold the door closed and it opens to reveal a simple shelved interior. It is a good quality piece with a thick marble top with moulded edge. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. There are minor signs of age and use and a few small marks and knocks but nothing detrimental and overall it displays well. There have been some repairs to chips around the base but overall it displays well and there is no damage to the marble. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
