Description

A very useful set of stripped pine shelves dating from the early 20th Century. It has an arrangement of 9 open pigeon holes, of varying sizes, around a central cupboard which opens to a shelved interior. It stands on small bracket feet and has a raised shaped gallery around the top edge. It is a good quality piece and the pine has a lovely warm colour. It has good narrow proportions making it useful for hallway storage, books or even in a kitchen or bathroom. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. There are minor signs of age and use, a few small marks and knocks but nothing detrimental. There are some signs of historic worm which has all been treated as a precaution. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
